

ENTREPRENEURIAL LEARNING EXCHANGE INITIATIVE FOR SUSTAINABLE HOSPITALITY SMEs IN THE BALKAN-MEDITERRANEAN REGION

Subsidy Contract No. BMP1/1.3/2616/2017

Page | 1

Company name: Hotel Bleart

Country/region of operation: Durrës, Albania

Description of the enterprise/imitative:

Hotel Bleart is a modern hotel located in a privileged zone of historical and touristic values at the same time; In this zone, the so-called Petra during antiquity, there took place one of the most famous battles between Julius Caesar and Pompeii in the 48th year BC. Today, the zone is called the Rock of Kavaja (Shkëmbi i Kavajës in Albanian).

Hotel Bleart was inaugurated in June 1, 1994, and it soon became one of the most important names in tourism and business activities in Albania. It is only 20 m far from the seaside, and only 10 m from the sandy beach, 10 km from the city centre Durrës, 20 km far from the International Airport “Mother Theresa”, 35 km from Tirana, the capital of Albania. It offers to its precious guests a high quality service, the commodity of a luxurious hotel and restaurant with a delicious Mediterranean cuisine, 2 conference rooms, 1 meeting room, one spa&fitness centre, an outdoor swimming pool, a night club, a private beach, a pleasure pier in the sea to enjoy the tasty food, drinks and desserts, and many other facilities in order to enjoy your stay at our hotel.

Whether you are travelling as a tourist or a businessperson, Hotel Bleart offers you all the amenities you are looking for!

Year when the enterprise was created:1994

Contact person for more information: info@hotelbleart.com

References:

<http://www.hotelbleart.com/en>

<https://www.facebook.com/blearthotel/>

This publication reflects the views only of the authors. The European Commission and the national Governments of the participating countries cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.